Murchison Falls National Park

Everything has been planned and organized and now it's time to enjoy and start your journey with us. Welcome to Uganda! After introducing you to your guide and answering your questions, we'll take you out to show you all that this amazing country has to offer.

Today we head to Murchison Falls National Park, which is Uganda's largest conservation area and one of its most rewarding overall safari destinations. Wildlife viewing activities focus on the Nile River, a mesmerizing tropical waterway that supports impressive concentrations of hippo, crocodile and aquatic birds, and attracts plenty of other thirsty wildlife, from elephants and buffaloes to giraffes and antelope. The park is named after its scenic highlight: an explosive waterfall formed by the Nile as it siphons through a narrow crack in the Rift Valley escarpment.

Kampala (Day 1)

Situated 40km north of Entebbe and its international airport, Kampala is a modern capital with a population of at least two million set at the hub of the national road network.

We will stay at Pakuba Safari Lodge, where you can enjoy views over a lushly vegetated stretch of the Albert Nile from the swimming pool and balcony. It's easy to see why this was chosen as the site of one of Murchison Falls' first two lodges back in the 1960s, especially as it provides easy access to the national park's most reliably productive game-drive circuit.
